Based on geographical, kinship, archeological, linguistic, folkloric, oral traditional, and historical information since time immemorial the whole of Marin County has been the ancestral territory of the Coast Miwok, among whom are the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California. Tribal consultation has established that the items listed in this notice are culturally affiliated with the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California and are objects of cultural patrimony.

Determinations made by the University of California, Berkeley

Officials of the University of California, Berkeley have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(3)(D), the 34 cultural items described above have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual.
- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), there is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the objects of cultural patrimony and the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to claim these cultural items should submit a written request with information in support of the claim to Thomas Torma, University of California, Berkeley; 50 University Hall, 2199 Addison Street, Berkeley, CA 94720, telephone (510) 672-5388, email t.torma@berkeley.edu, by [INSERT DATE 30 DAYS AFTER PUBLICATION IN THE FEDERAL REGISTER]. After that date, if no additional claimants have come forward, transfer of control of the objects of cultural patrimony to the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California may proceed.

The University of California, Berkeley is responsible for notifying the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, California, and the Guidiville Rancheria of California that this notice has been published.
